To whom it may concerned;

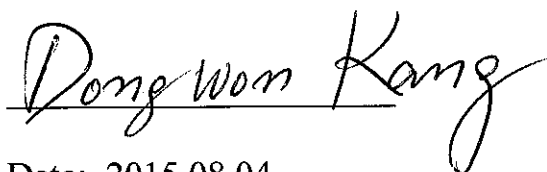

Ms. Heaweon Lee is a person who shows her best responsibility and understanding in every aspect. At the same time, she is a broad-minded person who can accept differences between people. I'm sure she is a reliable person for your internship.

She is majoring Spanish, International Business and Area studies. She always volunteered to be the last person leaving the place and takes care of everything. Thus, I can describe her as a well devoted person.

I believe she is a person who knows how to admit the differences between people and also knows how to handle it. Working as team, she is always a good listener, and that way she tries to encourage the members to communicate better. She acts harmoniously with members and she was always punctual.

She has not only the Language abilities but also the understanding of their culture. Furthermore she trained well in the field of Latin America studies especially economic and cultural exchange. I have found from Heaweon Lee is her positive attitude melted in her studies. She always tries to look on the International Business. She hardly gives up on studies and tries to do her best all the time.

Therefore, I definitely recommend Heaweon Lee as the right person for your trainee member.
